

Orion's Reign, Elder Blood

Ohhhhhh

Run away... Run away... Run away...

Run away save our souls
Run away, run forevermore
Cast off fears – There is hope
War is raging like never before

Deep into the song, (...There's an evil hunting you...)
Just went to the front
With a fearless heart
From the no-man land to the Isle of damned
Ready for our last stand

Pray and hope to a god unknown
We shall find glory or death alone
Trying to hold my strength tonight
My heart longing to bring you home

White frost is upon us
Vile and cold
Terror, war and hunger
Shall unfold
Prophecies and legends
Speak of hope
Find the one who's born of
Elder blood

Run Away, Riding fast
Run away, run forevermore
Hunt us down, marching through the dark
Hunger, blood and woe, the price of war

Deep into the song, (...There's an evil hunting you...)
Just went to the front
With a fearless heart
Darkness comes, raise your swords
Our power shall be known

Pray and hope to the flame of old
While all gods turn their back on all
Is there anyone to bring light?
Stand our ground to believe and fight

White frost is upon us
Vile and cold
Terror, war and hunger
Shall unfold
Prophecies and legends
Speak of hope
Elder blood
