

Oscar Brand, He's All Right

Oh, what's the matter with Harrison?
He's all right
There can be no comparison
He's all right

Ben's a man who bravely went
For his native land to shoot
Whereas Grover Cleveland skulked
Behind the nearest substitute
So what's the matter with Harrison?
He's all right

Oh, what's the matter with Harrison?
He's all right
There can be no comparison
He's all right

Benjamin captured rebel flags
In the battle blazing track
Cleveland is a craven coward
Who would like to give them back
So what's the matter with Harrison?
He's all right

Oh, what's the matter with Harrison?
He's all right
Sure, there can be no comparison
He's all right

Ben left his home, his wife and child
To serve up in the battleground
While Grover Cleveland stayed behind
To sow his wild oats all around
So what's the matter with Harrison?
He's all right
There are no flies on Harrison
He's all right
