

Osker, Radio

you're all i've got.

i explained to electronics and it understood.

the fucking radio takes my mind off of everything...

tonight i'll stare at everything and see nothing, and i can't believe that this is me.

pitch black and no one isn't that what i always wanted,

and it's been all i've had for so long,

it'll be all i need until the day i die...
