

Otis Redding, Your One And Only Man

If I can only, make you see
That you were only, meant for me, now
Our love will be free
And I'll be your destiny destiny, destiny, right, now, now, now, babe

If I can make you only understand
Treat me right and love me
Then I will be your man
Your one and only man

These are the words
That I have to say
Live by them each and every day, now
And as the time pass
I know our love will last, our love will last, our love will last
Now, now, now babe

Take me blue
Understand them
Live by them and love me
Then I will be your man
Your one and only man

These are the words
That I have to say
Just live by them each and every day, now
And as the time pass
I know our love will last, our love will last, our love will last
Now

Take me blue
Understand them
Live by them and love me
Honey I will be your man
I said your one and only man

Yes your truly lovely man
Yes your lovely lovely man
You don't need nobody to do nothing for you baby
I said I could just love and be just one guy that you need
I could say I could be one guy that you love
I could just be anyone you want me to be, now, now
I said I could be just anyone you want me to be Darling, baby, my, my, my, my baby
Na, na, wow...
