

Our Lady Peace, Carnival

You know you're not a strong man And you're just about to cry Hang on hang on it's alright its alright You worry about the future The sign said "Yoga Class for Cats"
It's okay its okay its no fun
You're frustrated by the cracks in the pavement
And every mother's back Once again the carnival closed down But if this world ever turns around and the dynamite is is waiting they bamkrupted the sky
its okay its okay its no fun you're fustrated by the cracks in the pavement
and every mothers back
once again
the carnival closed down
but if this world ever turns around
you're fustrated by the cracks in the pavement
and every mothers back
once again
you'll be there when everyone is sane
you'll be there when everyone is sane
you'll be there when everyone is sane
you'll be there when everyone is sane you'll be there
