

Our Lady Peace, Deep Down

When you look at me,
Do you close your eyes,
So you dont have to face the fear inside
You are haunted by regret
For a mistake you havent even made yet
I heard a wise voice once say
Mistakes are for learning
Dont throw love away
If youll just wait and see
There will come another time for you and me
So you can run away fast as you can
And forgetting me well it can be your plan
But the silence will scream at you
This is not the right thing to do
And falling came so easily
And for the first time
You took life lightly
And would it be worth trying
If you could actually see me crying
You ask yourself each and every night
How can something so wrong feel so right
One day youll let it show ya
You will do something impractical
So you can run away fast as you can
And forgetting me well it can be your plan
But the silence will scream at you
This is not the right thing to do
So come on run away fast as you can
And forgetting me will it can be your plan
But the silence will scream at you
This is not the right thing to do
And deep down youll know
Youre not ready to let go
When you look at me
Do you close your eyes
So you dont have to face the fear inside
You are haunted by regret
For a mistake you havent made yet
