

Out of Eden, Day Like Today

Woke up this morning, jumped out of bed,
Hit my head on a lampshade and the clock said
That I'm running late so I'm rushing trying to get on my way
(Huuuh) Get to my car and the gauge is on E,
Get gas and I pay a dollar ninety-three (What?)
Got stopped by the cops cause I was speeding
Eighty-nine in a fifty-five Lord, why me

On a day like today,
All has gone wrong and my life seems crazy
Gotta hold on, smile on my face
Cause I know the sun's gonna shine my way
On a day like today,
Look up at the sky and know life's so amazing
And I know I will be okay
Cause I know the sun's gonna shine my way

It's days like this there's a lesson learned
When I get up on the wrong side of the world
It's easy to dwell on my situation instead of every good thing
(But I know I've been blessed) I gotta say thank you
(And though there's stress) I'm still grateful
(It's just a test) He's more than able to see me through on a day

On a day like today,
All has gone wrong and my life seems crazy
Gotta hold on, smile on my face
Cause I know the sun's gonna shine my way
On a day like today,
Look up at the sky and know life's so amazing
and I know I will be okay
Cause I know the sun's gonna shine my way

I know it wouldn't hurt to smile
It's not as bad as it could be it will work out in a while (repeat)

On a day like today,
All has gone wrong and my life seems crazy
Gotta hold on, smile on my face
Cause I know the sun's gonna shine my way
On a day like today,
Look up at the sky and know life's so amazing
And I know I will be okay
Cause I know the sun's gonna shine my way

So I just hold tight, know that everything is alright
Gotta believe I will see the light
Cause I know the sun's gonna shine my way

So I just hold tight, know that everything is alright
Gotta believe I will see the light
Cause I know the sun's gonna shine my way

On a day like today,
All has gone wrong and my life seems crazy
Gotta hold on, smile on my face
Cause I know the sun's gonna shine my way
On a day like today,
Look up at the sky and know life's so amazing
And I know I will be okay
Cause I know the sun's gonna shine my way

On a day like today,
All has gone wrong and my life seems crazy

Gotta hold on, smile on my face
Cause I know the sun's gonna shine my way
On a day like today,
Look up at the sky and know life's so amazing
And I know I will be okay
Cause I know the sun's gonna shine my way

Suns gonna shine (yea yea)
Fade out
