

Oval Opus, Anchorman

Drifting alone on an empty sea,
On a makeshift raft like a refugee.
The message in her bottle said "rescue me";

She's a girl gone wild on DVD,
Leaving nothing up to mystery,
A beautiful wet catastrophe...

And she said,
The night is bleeding stars to guide you,
Cause I'm a stormy ride.

And I said,
I'm your anchor man,
Hold you steady in the ocean,
I'm keeping you free from the undertow.
If you believe in love,
Raise your sails and get in motion.
Til I drop down you'll never, never know,
You'll never, never know.

She's a little bird of paradise,
Sexy little eyes that tantalize,
A siren on the rocks that mesmerize.

She's not afraid to dance in the pouring rain,
Spinning round and round like a weather vain,
Up the mississippi pimpin' like Mark Twain...

And she said,
The moon is folding into dark clouds,
But I'm a stormy ride.

And I said,
I'm your anchor man,
Hold you steady in the ocean,
I'm keeping you free from the undertow.
If you believe in love,
Raise your sails and get in motion.
Til I drop down you'll never, never know,
You'll never, never know.

I've seen a lot of vessels sinking,
You're no mystery to me.
I think you're doing too much thinking,
If you think you're going down,
Grab ahold of me.

And she said,
The night is bleeding stars to guide you,
Cause I'm a stormy ride.

And I said,
I'm your anchor man,
Hold you steady in the ocean,
I'm keeping you free from the undertow.
If you believe in love,
Raise your sails and get in motion.
Til I drop down you'll never, never know,
You'll never, never know.
