

Oval Opus, I Need Some Time

I need some time to get back on my feet again.
I need some time to find the answers in my head.
I need some time.
I hope that freedom can be found.
I need some time.

Scary stories of a world falling apart.
Sadness echoes from a child's broken heart.
Is there anyway to ease all of this pain?
We all pay retribution for mistakes that we make.

I need some time to get back on my feet again.
I need some time to find the answers in my head.
I need some time.
I hope that freedom can be found.
I need some time.

Life is seldom fair.
That's a lesson we've all learned.
Racing time to try to mend the bridges that we've burned.
I've pulled so many threads,
From a blanket I can't sow.
But through these holes I can see a place where love can grow.

I need some time to get back on my feet again.
I need some time to find the answers in my head.
I need some time.
I hope that freedom can be found.
I need some time.

Don't you tell me that there's no way
I've come so far I can not turn back.
I've set my eyes on the place I want to be,
And someday I will arrive.

I need some time to get back on my feet again.
I need some time to find the answers in my head.
I need some time.
I hope that freedom can be found.
I need some time.

I need some time to get back on my feet again.
I need some time to find the answers in my head.
I need some time.
I hope that freedom can be found.
I need some time.
