

Oval Opus, Let Go

I guess the end finally came.
Truth is, I'm the one to blame.
And I'm sorry.
See I never thought it would end this way.
Silent with nothing left to say.
I'm so sorry.

Now the hardest part is here.
Hanging up the phone and wishing you were here.

I've gotta let go.
I've gotta let go.
I've gotta let go it's over.
I've gotta let go.
I've gotta let go.
I've gotta let go it's over.

See I thought that we were a sure thing.
God knows we've been through everything.
And I still miss you.
See I thought that I could somehow change,
Love you more than anything.
I know I failed you.

Now I sit here in the dark.
I still wonder; how did we fall apart?

I've gotta let go.
I've gotta let go.
I've gotta let go it's over.
I've gotta let go.
I've gotta let go.
I've gotta let go it's over.

You deserve much more than me
You deserve much more than me
You deserve so much more than I can give.
You deserve much more than me
You deserve much more than me
You deserve so much more than I can give.

I've gotta let go.
I've gotta let go.
I've gotta let go it's over.
I've gotta let go.
I've gotta let go.
I've gotta let go it's over.

Oh, I know it's over.
