

Oval Opus, Walk Away

You told me that you're happy
That I came here tonight
By the look in his eyes,
You were telling a lie
But don't you worry baby
I'm not waiting here for you
I just had to see it with my own eyes

So you'll tell me that you love me
And you treat me oh so bad
I'm sick of playing all these foolish games
Another broken promise
And a lie you can't explain.
I have to warn myself to walk away.

All my friends keep telling me
To stay away from you
I have to admit; sometimes its hard.
But all I have to do;
Is just take one look at your
I know your love can only do harm

So you'll tell me that you love me
And you treat me oh so bad
I'm sick of playing all these foolish games
Another broken promise
And a lie you can't explain.
I have to warn myself to walk away.

You're my Aprodite,
An arrow in my heel
You look like Cleopatra;
Like a serpent you can kill
You were my everything,
The apple of my eye
But now you're in the corner
And you're with another guy

So you'll tell him that you love him
And you treat him oh so bad
I'm sick of playing all these foolish games
Another broken promise
And a lie you can't explain.
I have to warn the world to walk away.
