

Over It, Welcome To Virginia

sometimes its hard for me, much harder than it seems i've got to get out of this life, before it all comes down on me its like they say - you've got to live life day to day you've got to stand up one more time i wonder how long it's gonna take this time, to walk this line subliminal as writing on the wall we're trapped inside complacency you know entoub routine and seal it with a kiss this ignorance has got the best of you
