

Overcome, Hebron

Given this day, my life as a sacrifice.
To the God that reigns forever, I lift my voice,
with my mouth I will praise you,
for you are worthy to be praised.
With my feet I will stand before you, and my hands I will raise.
Oh God, I have left this world.
Crossed Over, eternal life my reward.
I sense your fight.
Your pride comes before your heart,
this world is not worth eternity in hell.
But you're so proud, so proud of being lost.
I choose to live for God, I have crossed.
Hebron I have crossed over.
