

Overkill, I Rise

Voluntary action, leading to the scar upon the face
Planning the reaction, the color, the moment paint the place
In blood, in fire, calling you back home to the demise
In black, desire, calling you, witnessing the rise

[Chorus]
God damn this light
Take it out
Let me see what you to hide
The parasite
Has his way
Until the day
I rise

In pure retribution, remorseful as the moment of his birth
In reconciliation, he ponders a solution in the dirt
In blood, in fire, a blessing of the few, immortalize
In black, desire, a calling to the witness of the rise

[Chorus]
Awaken, in time
God, self, liberty
Broken into
Pride all over me

Soaring, climbing
Self, god liberty
Broken by ym
Drive to set it free
Fire in my freedom
Hatred in my heart
Long live the kingdom
As the king does fall apart

Back off the ceremony
Count all the flies
Fight through the maggots
To reach the underly
Pushing to infinity
Laughs replaced by cries
Push into liberty
Sanctify the rise
God damn your light
It's in my eyes
God damn the will to kill me
God damn your pride

[Chorus]
