

Overkill, The One

An all out panic, thrashing
Splitting you in half
Mistook the sobbing for a laugh
Travel close concealed
I'll leave the dorr ajar
So who has taken you this far
You've been here before

Call if you need
I'm right over here
With a finger on the trigger
And if you need me
Fall and you'll bleed
As the demon appear
It's time to stand, deliver
And if you know me

[Chorus]
I am your stand and deliver
I am your shot (golden gun)
I am you're voice in the sliver
(I am, I am, I am the one)
I am your stand and deliver

I am your shot (golden gun)
(I am, I am, I am the one)

Now when you get inside
Be careful what you say
Don't be mistaken for the prey
Low to the ground is best
Attend to the bizarre
So who has taken you this far
I've seen you before

Call if you need
I'm right over here
With a finger on the trigger
And if you need me
Fall and you'll bleed
As the demon appear
It's time to stand, deliver

[Chorus]
