

Ozark Henry, I'm Your Sacrifice

Something's rattled your cage
Stopped me dead in my tracks
Been through hell and high tide
But we never looked back
I thought that we couldn't lose and then I bet all I had
From the top of the world I started seeing the cracks

Am I losing you now?
Am I losing you now?

Why would you change on me?
When I took a chance on you
Is it upsetting you that everything's in place?
Is this how you play the game?
Giving your hand away
When I'm all in and still you roll the dice
And I'm your sacrifice

Got no cards up my sleeve, nothing under my hat
The moment of truth, there's no going back
Went from Bonnie and Clyde to Jekyll and Hyde
We're fire and ice, we're fire and ice

Am I losing it now?
Am I losing it now?

Why did you change on me?
When I took a chance on you?
Was it upsetting you that everything's in place
Is this how you play the game
Giving your hand away
When I'm all in and still you roll the dice
And I'm your sacrifice?

Is this how you play... the game
When I'm all in and still you roll the dice?
Giving your hand... away
When I'm all in and still you roll the dice
And I'm your sacrifice

I'm still a believer
