Ozark Henry, To walk again (theme 2) whatever caught me on the hop I had no choice I had to face it to much of me to keep aside won't lose myself in looking back with ifs to tell me what is wasted many a time I've cursed the whys

to walk again

I'm always go, I'm never stop whatever I am chasing to live a dream is out of this world so I still race untill I drop so I still put me through my paces to live a dream and dream up how to walk again
