

Ozark Mountain Daredevils, Lovin' You

(GUITAR INTRO)

I remember the day when I was barely alive and nothing I did ever seemed to work I could look through the window and feel close to the light but when I reached for the door stumbled back in the dark
oh, oh, it was you, girl
that gave me this feeling that gave me the world

lovin' you...

lovin' my life away...

lovin' you...

lovin' my life away...

lovin' you

I been down on my knees and crying out in the night
'cause no one before ever told me the truth now I'm keeping no secrets and I'm telling no lies the sun always rises and sets in you
oh, oh, it was you, girl
that gave me this feeling that gave me the world

lovin' you...

lovin' my life away...

lovin' you...

lovin' my life away...

lovin' you

(GUITAR SOLO)

lovin' you...

lovin' you...

lovin' you...

lovin' you...
