

Ozma, A Song For You

First time i saw you i didnt think you were special but now i realized that your the one i want to grow old with i want to take you out i want to do everything right i'll take you to your favorite shop i'll even let you use my favorite coffee cup oh you, when you look at me you make me feel so glad oh you, when you smile at me you make me feel so nervous cause your the one that i adore i'll let you use my coat when you're cold i'll do anything for you but now you're probably in bed sleeping with one of my best friends
