

Ozzy Osbourne, Patient Number 9

Is there a way out of here?
Hey, I love you, but you
I wanna go home
Hey, hahaha
Hahaha
Excuse me, would you tell how to get out of here?
Hahaha
I want to go home
Hahaha
Mommy, mommy

Every hallway's painted white as the light
That will guide you to your help
Making friends with strangers inside in my head
'Cause they seem to know me well

Hiding the pills inside your mouth
Swallow 'em down, then spit them out
I hear the laughter scream and shout
No tomorrow

When they call your name, better run and hide
Tell you you're insane, you believe their lies
I'm not gettin' out, no, I'm not gettin' out alive (Ooh)
I'm not gettin' out 'cause I'm patient number nine (Ooh)

When the sun goes down, the animals cry
That's a sound you won't forget
It's the mirror's face you don't recognise
It'll get you in the end

Hiding the pills inside your mouth
Swallow 'em down, then spit them out
I hear the laughter scream and shout
Someone help me

When they call your name, better run and hide
Tell you you're insane, you believe their lies
I'm not gettin' out, no, I'm not gettin' out alive (Ooh)
I'm not gettin' out 'cause I'm patient number nine (Ooh)

When the walls of a padded cell become reality
How many tears till I ground myself 'cause no one cries for me?
If there's a God, why'd he let the Devil do his work on me? Oh yeah
If there's a God, what am I doing here?

When they call your name, better run and hide
Tell you you're insane, you believe their lies
I'm not gettin' out, no, I'm not gettin' out alive (Ooh)
I'm not gettin' out 'cause I'm patient number nine (Ooh)
