

Pacific!, Sunset Blvd

sometimes you will see when you walk through life you just get it right. its a natural high yes, you understand who youre living for when youre going out. its a natural high youre my funky love that I always hide its a little thing like a childs pure revelation the one you hide for life, baby when you come to me like a dream at night from the hills above like a sunset right sensation. the one you hide for life, baby
