

Pacifier / Shihad, Run

on the rising tide
rollercoaster ride
as the truth descends
you chose not to ride again

so you run
whatcha holding on, holding on to
run
life is going on
all around you
run
whatcha holding on, holding on to

you still love to dance love to take a chance
but something turned inside and the dreams: they got left behind

so you run
whatcha holding on, holding on to
run
life is going on
run
whatcha holding on, holding on to
run
look what's going on, all around you don't want to have to make a change wouldn't want to exaggerate the pain go running and back to the old ways

so you run
whatcha holding on, holding on to
run
life is going on
all around you
life is going on
all around you
run
