

Pagan's Mind, New World Order

From crimson burning skies
Arrival of unknown existence approaching closer
Disconnecting understanding to be free

[Bridge:]

Somewhere lost in time, I'm dreaming
And my lifeline is closing in
Freed now, unchained

[Chorus:]

Echoes in time - we're left behind to understand
This mystery haunts me
Seeking, finding - codes entwining
Somewhere deep inside me, racing through my soul
Freed now - unchained
Alive again

Coded minds forever, key within - inside your mind

Back to their reign. Lights are fading
They finally arrived to the new world order
Analyzing humans being

Standing up against the light, facing fear

Somewhere lost in time, I'm dreaming
And my lifeline is closing in
Freed now, unchained

Coded minds forever calling
Key within - inside your mind
