Pagan's Mind, New World Order

From crimson burning skies Arrival of unknown existence approaching closer Disconnecting understanding to be free

[Bridge:] Somewhere lost in time, I'm dreaming And my lifeline is closing in Freed now, unchained

[Chorus:]
Echoes in time - we're left behind to understand
This mystery haunts me
Seeking, finding - codes entwining
Somewhere deep inside me, racing through my soul
Freed now - unchained
Alive again

Coded minds forever, key within - inside your mind

Back to their reign. Lights are fading They finally arrived to the new world order Analyzing humans being

Standing up against the light, facing fear

Somewhere lost in time, I'm dreaming And my lifeline is closing in Freed now, unchained

Coded minds forever calling Key within - inside your mind
