Pain, Bye/Die

Tell me What do you see when you see yourself I don't really get it How do you make it through the day without killing yourself

Bye bye, why don't you go and Die die, I'll fk you up You want me on my knees But I'm not going down

Bye bye, leave me alone or Die die, it is your choice No time for games, so just leave me the fk alone

Do you know, you're all the same
Got to play these stupid games
You're getting on my nerves, so just stay the fk away
Who died and made you god
This time you've gone too far
I think it's time for you to understand: this is war

There's nothing to see here, I don't wanna be here Get me out of here right now I can not sit around and wait for you to drive me insane

Bye bye, why don't you go and Die die, I'll fk you up You want me on my knees But I'm not going down

Bye bye, leave me alone or Die die, it is your choice No time for games, so just leave me the fk alone

So you think I'm unreasonable
Do you really think I am a toy that you can kick around
Don't come here, you're a waste of time
Some people never know when it's time to back away
It will come back at you and slap you in the face

There's nothing to see here, I don't wanna be here Get me out of here right now I can not sit around and wait for you to drive me insane

I don't have the patience so what are you after Do you want me to snap right now? Some things will never ever change, like you and your ugly face

Bye bye, why don't you go and Die die, I'll fk you up You want me on my knees but I'm not going down

Bye bye, leave me alone or Die die, it is your choice No time for games so just leave me the fk alone

Bye bye, it's your choice Die die, I'll fk you up Bye bye, why don't you go and Die die, leave me alone
