

Pain, Fade Away

Press my face in the dirt see how long I can hold my breath pour some salt in my wounds I am just someone who doesn't fit in your world

how can I smile with your gun to my head how can I reach out when you'r holding me back I am just so tired of everyone who's trying to save me just save yourself...

fade away
i wanna fade away

you give me your hand, I don't want it I'll rather drown on my own you try to give me relief, I don't need it I'll rather put the gun to my head bitterness is calling inside I am already damned the fire in my soul is slowly dying you know my destiny calls my name

fade away
I wanna fade away
fade away
I wanna fade away
