

Pain Of Salvation, Nauticus (Drifting)

Music, lyric and arrangements by Daniel Gildenlöv

Oh Lord
Oh Lord
Won't you hear a sinner's prayer
Oh Lord

Oh Lord
Oh Lord
Won't you help me find the way
When I'm lost and lead astray
Oh Lord

Mmm

Oh Lord
Oh Lord
Won't you help me to stay humble
Oh Lord

Oh Lord
Oh Lord
Won't you help me be an ocean
Help me bend to stay unbroken
Oh Lord

Mmm

Save me, I'm drifting
Help me, I'm drifting

Oh Lord
Oh Lord
Oh Lord

Mr. Money:
- OK alright baby, the love of my life

Girl:
- Are you referring to me... or the car?

Mr. Money:
- Oh, please honey, what do you think?
- Now, Cindy...

Girl:
- Sandra

Mr Money:
- Yeah, of course. Now, as I see it, we've got two natural choices here. So, what do you say? Either

Girl:
- What?

Mr. Money:
- Well, somebody's gotta watch the road honey...
- ...or... YOU can drive this baby
- ...oh, but only if you're good at handling the stick of course...

Girl:

- But... this is an automatic?

Mr. Money:

- ...rrrrright!

Girl:

- Is that some sort of sick joke?

Mr. Money:

- What?

Girl:

- ... &quot;natural choices&quot; my ass!

Mr. Money:

- Well, that's a third choise I didn't think about...

Girl:

- You son of a...!

Mr. Money:

- Take it easy baby!

- No sweat... it was only a joke, alright?

Girl:

- Alright

Mr. Money:

- ... I mean, of COURSE I was joking...

- ... I would NEVER let you drive my car!

CLUE: pay attention to the radio...
