

Paloalto, Breathe In

Innocense cone
Is likely with the TV-shows on
Feeling like a high school prom
And you wanna pretend
Useless and full of it
Why no one else can believe in this
You wanna feel something to call your own
That they can't cut out
They can't cut it out
I've seen better things than this
Come in closer to my weathernova* feelings
I don't wanna fade out
I don't wanna fade in
Like everybody should
I don't wanna fade out
I don't wanna fade in
Like everything before
Fall asleep son
Like they're gonna wake you up
It's pushing up this insecurity
Where you wanna push me
You can't push me
I've cut nails slashed in brute*
I'll get it my way
I'll see the day it'll come out clearer
I don't wanna fade out
I don't wanna fade in
Like everybody should
I don't wanna fade out
I don't wanna fade in
Like everything before
Fade in Fade out
Fade in Fade out
Fade in Fade out
Fade in Fade out
Fade in Fade out
Fade in Fade out
Fade in Fade out
Fade in Fade out!
I don't wanna fade out
I don't wanna fade in
Like everybody should
I don't wanna fade out
I don't wanna fade in
Like everything before
It's a killer
Underneath them in my solids
In between us
I wanna fade in
Like everything before...
You must swear i'm all yours
It's far to go
It's far to go and too late
So you can't push your own kiss
