

Paloalto, Last Way Out Of Here

Running faster through the trees
Feeling nothing underneath
Your eyes are opened wide
Let it come in
Looking for the laughter show
Is it out there anymore?
Your head is lifting up to see how far to run
And you're feeling who you are
And you don't care who it is
How do you feel?
And you're barely wonderful
And you don't care if it hurts
How do you feel?
It's the last way out of here
Falling backwards
Broken knees
Waiting to be in between
You lay just where you are
Feeling amused
Yelling, screaming on the floor
Louder than you were before
You might just bite your tongue
When you're reaching for the world
And you're feeling who you are
And you don't care who it is
How do you feel?
And you're barely wonderful
And you don't care if it hurts
How do you feel?
It's the last way out of here
When all your walls are down
When all your walls are down
There's love
And you're feeling who you are
And you don't care who it is
How do you feel?
And you're barely wonderful
It's the last thing that you think
And you're feeling who you are
And you don't care if it hurts
And you're feeling loved
That you can't hang on
It's the last way
It's the last way
Stop to think (when all your walls are down)
When all your walls are down
Then there's love
You take in what you give in
When all your walls are down
When all your walls are down
Then there's love
It's the last way out of here
