

Panzer AG, Machinegun Gogo

I know you can't be

You can't understand me

I know you hope to do so

And now you feel another lovebone

It sounds pretty to me

I can't hold you to my hell

And I send you

All I send you to this hole

And never forced you to rent my soul

It's kinda pretty love

All then I'm so hopeless, so hopeless

Can I get none, can't get no answer

So do it baby

She said:

I got a crush for the freaky one

And nothing feels better than machinegun gogo

She is the only one

She loves the machinegun gogo

Can't feel none too hopeless

To hope he's hopeless

Can't handle my answers

Two answers for my precious one

How much I fear

How could I answer

That I'll never read your thoughts again

But you never know

I just might go

They say: life is ending

Well that is so perfect

I got a crush for the freaky one
And nothing feels better than machinegun gogo
She is the only one
She loves the machinegun gogo
[x3]

I cannot feel it gotta end this journey
I had it all
Now I feel I understand you
Thank you
Well that is so perfect

I got a crush for the freaky one
And nothing feels better than machinegun gogo
She is the only one
She loves the machinegun gogo
[x4]
