

Panzer AG, Tides That Kill

Place to sleep
Sleep in place
Place your tears
tears in hiding
Hiding from eyes eyes that storm
Storms that tide
Tides that kill

Time will fade your color,
Years will dim your light
You've moved into the other,
This side will hold you tight
Nothing more I could have done,
Nothing less then move the sun
You're better off this way,
Taken away, far away from your pain

No one blames you or hates your need for wanting a new , for needing to breathe
This world choked you and stole your desire you're cut from the post and pulled out from the fire

I couldn't help you,
You would not let me,
I couldn't save you,
You just detached me
I know you wanted,
You reached out for me,
I watched you fall to your grave in me
