

Paola & Chiara, Comin' around

I'm here and I think of you, yes I do
Baby I can't forget you - can you feel it too?
Now that I love you, do you love me too?
It's so complicated, tell me why
I know that I can't make it, as time goes by
Why won't you give me just another try?
Speak to me darling, all my dreams are fallin' down - now that I need you
I'll never be what you want me to be you're not comin' around, your not comin' around...
This love that I'm feeling is what I feel for you
Or am I just dreaming? No, it can't be true!
I want to know now, is it hard for you?
Would you be happier, if you let me go?
And I will find my anchor, think you ought to know
I just can't stop loving you, you won't come back for more, so please -
Speak to me darling, all my dreams are fallin' down - now that I need you
I'll never be what you want me to be you're not comin' around, your not comin' around...
You're not comin' around - no no baby - uhhh
Not any more
