

Papa Roach, I Think Of You (Bonus Track)

Wish I would never have said it
But if I only admit it
Then I will tell you the truth 'cause that's all I know
So you can't ignore how he bought you
He sat you down and he taught you
And you obeyed every rule that he made
'cause he bought you
Now he owns you

So don't go away
Don't go away
Got something to say
About the dark side of me
Dead side of me
Life side of me
Dark side of me
Dead side of me

I lied to you when you caught me
Should have learned what you taught me
And the truth cuts just like a knife
When you cut me
And after all that i told you
I loved it when I would hold you
But those are just things that I said in my head
Wish I told you
Should have told you

I said don't go away
Don't go away
Got something to say
About the dark side of me
Dead side of me
Life side of me
Dark side of me
Dead side of me

Just let it be
Won a war with me

I said I havn't told you anything
I hold it all inside in vain
I think of you when I think of pain
now I've told you everything

I said don't go away
Don't go away
I've got something to say
About the dark side of me
Dead side of me
Life side of me
Dark side of me
Dead side of me

I said I havn't told you anything
I hold it all inside in vain
I think of you when I think of pain
Never tell you anything

I said I havn't told you anything
I hold it all inside in vain
I think of you when I think of pain
I said it
So forget it.
