

Paperback Hero, Now

So you ask, say your prayers
Last in line, don't you care
Color-blind to what is fair
Wasted time, no time to spare
I want you now
I can't fall down
Last chance on the front line slowly fades
Last chance for that last dance is today now
Walk in stride, face your fears
Pay your dues, that time is here
Bold to dream, and make it real
So damn close, so damn clear
I want you now
I can't fall down
Last chance for that last dance is today now
I want you now
I can't fall down
So far from home
I bare my soul
