Papermoon, Night After Night

All alone I have tried to write a few words to you all alone I have tried to Live with the pain

I wonder now Are you alone Is somebody with you I wonder now How can I go on when you're not around refrain: night after night I am waiting for someone I'm calling you day after day after day Can't you hear me

Tell me now How can you be strong When somebody needs you Tell me now Where do I belong Can't find my way home I run away Away from the storm Turn around See the hills See the sky See the sun

Refrain

I can't believe Is it true This paperback story I can't believe Is it true That you are gone

Refrain x2

Night after night after night Day after day after day Night after night after night Day after day after day
