

Paradise Lost, Self Obsessed

i'm self-obsessed wrong words i said
it's clear that some things aren't worth really trying so let it go, let it be then we'll talk and i can dream you're not here persevere, i could live without this the one you'd like to go is taken much too slow you're not impressed
a mere subject of your self-indulgence
shall we to talk about it my misery is when you breathe there's no doubt about it
