

Paradise Lost, Terminal

A frail form surrounds
Infection, sorrow, screams aloud
Trade your soul connect to fear
Feeding death, ___ downed

Forget the past,
Are you still believing?
Tonight's denial dominates the dreaming!

A veiled mourner's frown
Tomorrows dreams confound
Trade the souls you hold most dear
Into darkness where you're lost

Forget the past,
Are you still believing?
Tonight's denial dominates the dreaming!

I can hope as silence and torture ___
The violence we now condemn infests our inner souls
