

Paramore, Stay Away

your lies are bleeding through your teeth your eyes, the only one thing in me your promises never really meant a thing but they float from your lips so easily stay, stay, stay, stay, stay away from me stay, stay, stay, stay away stay, stay, stay, stay away from me stay, stay, stay, stay away, away its my best at your heart the glass that rips your word apart is it the guilt that keeps you up at night when your in bed? well you can sleep sound honey, i'll write you a check

i never was too good with goodbyes you made it easy when your glee presided with all the evil that you've provided you still put the "good" in "goodbye" in goodbye, in goodbye stay away, stay, stay, stay away from me

stay, stay, stay, stay, stay away from me
