

Pariah, This Means War

(Kyle Ellison, Sims Ellison, Jason McMaster)

I'm mean as hell--I'm itchin' for a thrill

Asphalt stickin' to the bottom of my boots

I'm oozin' for a kill

Down at the candy store, that's where I breed

I've spend my life down in the gutter watchin' the vultures feed

(CHORUS)

Take what you get in this lifetime

You may not get another

Sometimes hard times get you down

Don't ever let it under your skin

This means war--burned and beaten

What do ya take me for--lied to and cheated

I hear you screamin'--I must be dreamin'

Today's a different day, unlike tomorrow

Gonna put your life through agony, gonna fill your heart with sorrow

Stick a thorn in your back and say it's gonna be o.k.

Ain't got a whole lot of shit to pack

I did the same old shit as yesterday

(CHORUS)

(First verse)
