

Paris, Rainy Day In London

You won't believe it but this is true
I have lived a double life
I had two lovers, two jobs, two names and it all really felt very nice
And then the other day I decided I would make a call to my secret lover over there, over the sea, in England
She said it was a

Rainy day today in London
A grey day today were she was
Rainy day today in London
A grey day today were she was
Were she is, were she was

I felt this is the time for me to leave it all behind I packed my bags didn't say goodbye and took a taxi straight to the airport Later that afternoon
I found myself in a hotel room and when I looked out the window I felt good and I understood that now there is a

Sunny day today in London
A lovely day today were we are
Sunny day today in London
A lovely day today were we are
Were I am, were we are

Rainy day today in London
