Carrion

In a moment Im lost
Taken from the inside
Her eyes take me away
Tear me apart from the inside out
Did I speak in volumes?
But a mass refuse to move
Could this ever be the last time?
The final time that we take this road
Give me the strength to return
Return the breath youve stolen
Give me the means to resist
Resist
Her heart Ive broken again
Reflections built up on sorrow
Were walking the darkest road
And it just got lit with regret
In a moment Ive lost
Taken from the inside
Her eyes take me away
Tear me apart from the inside out
Oh
From the inside out
The inside out
Weve been running blind
Now were falling through the cracks
Were left running
We are running blind
Now were falling
Falling through the cracks
Into the world of the dead
Her shutting eyes
Her shutting eyes
Theyre shutting eyes want your return
Back to the world of the dead
In a moment Ive lost
Taken from the inside
Her eyes take me away
Tear me apart from the inside out
My love I left
My heart I left
With my promise to return
A promise to return
