

Parkway Drive, Horizons

So it begins
Our eyes drawn open
Free from the thought of doubt
Free from the selfish conflict
Now blind these words
Chase us
With open arms we stand
Before the tide
[N/A]
Ever since I can recall
Branding a sense of permanence
To this lying world
Your words like icy air
You lies like [N/A]
To hope for something more
To dream of substance
Like a martyr before us
We need to die
Like a martyr before us
We dream to die
Masochistic to think
This would be remembered
Would be remembered
Sadistic, perpetuation
[N/A]
There is nothing as empty
As waiting to die
Weve spent our lives
Wasting, as time eats us alive
There is nothing as empty
As waiting to die
Weve spent our lives
Wasting, as time eats us alive
Oh
Your sunsets [N/A]
Ever since I can recall
The only sense
Of permanence
In this dying world
Sit back and watch
As time eats us alive
Everyone who know me
Know me
Destined to die
Die
The marks I left upon this world
Will wash away in time
In time
And so it ends
In time
It all finds an end
In time
And so it ends
In time
We all find an end
With broken arms
[N/A]
Ill wait to return to oblivion
Embrace the worst
[N/A]
[N/A]
