

Party, Life Ain't Nothing But A Party

Feel the music and feel the funky groove. Let your mind go when you start to move.

Motto is live your life to the full. Just keep positive and someday you'll rule.

The funky tribe of five to you, my friend, are kicking it live again and again.

Come to The Party, that's what you'll get. 'cause life is only what you give it.

Keep on Partying. Break it down.

To live your life is what you gotta do. Take it serious but have fun, too.

Express yourself anyway you choose. Get on the dance floor, just feel the groove.

You only live once so do it right. We don't have time to argue, fuss, and fight.

Feel the groove take over your soul. Let your body lose control.

Life ain't nothing but a party, and The Party ain't over yet.

You live your life to only do one thing, have a good time and let your body swing.

So let the music be your motivation. No color line in this generation.

All we wanna do is what you wanna do.

Make life a party and then hear the funky loop.

So we got the funky loop playing, listen up to what we are saying.

It ain't over. The Party ain't over. It ain't over.

Let your mind and body go. Let your funky emotions flow.
