

Passion Fruit, I'm Dreaming of A White Christmas

I'm dreaming of a white, white christmas-day,
i hear the bells from far away
now i am waiting here for you
baby it's christmas

I'm dreaming of a white, white christmas-day,
i hear the bells from far away
now i am waiting here for you
baby it's christmas

I'm dreaming of a white, white christmas-day
and through the clouds i see a ray there is a touch of love in the air
now and forever

A long time ago I was far from home
When I think back I was so alone Remember the time - it was winter and I find Pictures of love they are deep in my sad mind
See the white streets, the stars shine so bright Snowflakes fall down when I walk through the night Look in the sky and I start up to dream Only my family knows what I mean

I'm dreaming of a white, white christmas-day,
i hear the bells from far away
now i am waiting here for you
baby it's christmas

I'm dreaming of a white, white christmas-day
And through the clouds i see a ray
There is a touch of love in the air
Now and forever

I'm sitting at home and feel so alone
Pictures of last year that's all what I own Smelling the taste of the winter and I know Outside the trees are now covered with white snow

I'm looking around and hear carol sound
I feel the deepness of family bounds
I feel the vibes and I'm filled up with love Sometimes all feelings could not be enough

I'm dreaming of a white, white christmas-day
i hear the bells from far away
now i am waiting here for you
baby it's christmas

Come on and open up your heart
And everybody's taking part
Let's see the world through children's eyes tonight
Silent night

Come on and open up your heart
And everybody's taking part
Let's see the world through children's eyes tonight
What a night

I'm dreaming of a white, white christmas-day
i hear the bells from far away
now i am waiting here for you
baby it's christmas

I'm dreaming of a white, white christmas-day
and through the clouds i see a ray
there is a touch of love in the air
now and forever
