

Passionworks, Surrender

Another night, another fight, I'm always right, don't you know just do as I tell you so everything's fine
The spirit is gone
The feeling of love I don't remember How about shutting up, slowing down and eating something, your sugars low, it's getting hot
The reason is you, forever in you
I won't surrender

ref.:

I pray for a moment when we're down and break
There is more
But your furious touch, it means too much
I will surrender
Another lie you try to hide, you think it's fine
I still don't understand, why can't you see, it's not in me
Just give me a sign and the Phoenix will fly
And I surrender
(I pray when I'm down and break)

ref.:

You say you have the right to attack me
You blame me for taking the first step
And I feel so helpless
(But) the days when we fly wing to wing
I forget that my wing is still aching
I pray
I pray for a moment when we're down and break
There is more
But your furious touch, it means too much
I will surrender (I will surrender)
I will surrender (I will surrender) (x2)
