

Pat Benatar, Art Of Letting Go

(P. Brown, R. Feldman, M. Grombacher)

Here we go again, 'round and 'round again, gettin' nowhere fast
It's the same old game, one more final same, never meant to last Who'll be the first one who's leavin', who'll be the last one to cry
Something just keeps me believin' in our love tonight

Chorus:

I can't seem to say goodbye, though I've tried a million times
The more I learn, the less I know about the art of letting go
So we take our time and we make our moves oh so carefully
Always seems so safe, habit's hard to break when you're here with me
I don't know how am I to hold you, no easy way to be free
Something just keeps me believin' that we're meant to be

(chorus)

(Solo)

For all we feel and all we know, it's not easy letting go

(chorus)

About the art of letting go, you gotta let go, you gotta let go, yeah
