

Pat Boone, It's Too Soon To Know

(Deborah Chessler)

Does she love me
It's too soon to know
Can I believe her when she tells me so
Is she fooling
Is it all a game
Am I the fire or just another flame
A one-sided love would break my heart
She may be just acting and playing a part

If she don't love me
Let her tell me so
I won't hold her if she wants to go
Though I'll cry when she's gone
I won't die
I'll live on
If it's so
It's too soon
Way too soon to know

If she don't love me
Let her tell me so
I can't hold her if she wants to go
Though I'll cry when she's gone
I won't die
I'll live on
If it's so
It's too soon
Way too soon to know
