

Pat McGee Band, Eligy For Amy

Eligy For Amy

She moved away to a kinder place, where her soul flies
She smiling down upon us
Her heart warms the room now
Just help us through today your spirit guides us

Amy can you hear me?
Youe upstairs gently listening
Wee all down here wishing
You hadn left so soon

I want to thank you for your belief in me, now I believe in you
There is something strange about it
I can shut my eyes and see you there
I wish I said more words now the music singing

Amy can you hear me?
Youe upstairs gently listening
Wee all down here wishing
You hadn left so soon
Amy smile will cure you
So close your eyes and call her.
She waiting upstairs with Jesus.
Where everyone's your friend
