Just shut the door
Lay down on the bed

Pull down the shades
And lock the doors
It's funny how i hear you begging for more

(Slut!)
Pull down the shades
And lock the door
It's funny how i hear you begging for more
We'll make this night the best we can
I'll give you what you never had
And you look the best i've ever seen you
And i'll use that to my advantage
Liar liar going through my head
Just shut the door lay down on the bed
Pull down the shades
And lock the door
It's funny how i hear you begging for more
We'll make this night the best we can
I'll give you what you never had
Just shut the door
Lay down on the bed
Don't ever tell a soul
(x2)
Just shut the door
Lay down on the bed
(x2)
And it's a one night stand
It's all: lay your hands on me
