

Pato Banton, I'm Addicted / Sweet Reggae Music

I say eeny meeny miny mo man
I'm gonna hold on tight and never let go to the rhythm of the drum and the bass line that sends sweet musical shivers down my spine.
Sweet music is out of sight
I say it blows my mind like a dynamite
I gotta have it by day then I gotta have it by night and if I don't then you know I'm gonna get uptight.

Cause I'm addicted. Addicted to the vibe of the sweet reggae music.
I'm addicted. Addicted to the vibe of the drum and the base line.

Well P. B. that's me classical M. C.
I'm in a style of my own universally.
Now here I come from the underground
with a crucial vibe and an awesome sound.
I'm gonna shout Yeah! I'm gonna scream out loud
I'm gonna get to high places and stand up proud.
But I won't forget where I came from cause with my brothers and my sisters is where I belong.
Like the king of the ring Muhammed Ali
I'm gonna "float like a butterfly & sting like a bee".
Like the king of reggae music Mr. Bob Marley
I'm gonna spread the word universally.
To the north to the south to the east or the west
there is something that I must confess some people get a kick out of doing a line
I get high on the drum and the bass line.

I say hi de hi (hi de hi)
ho de ho (ho de ho).
There's something the media should know
we need more reggae on the radio!
Cause who feels it knows it and I've been hurt
I got married to the music for better or worse for richer for poorer 'til death do us part believe it's coming straight from my heart when I say
